TIMLIF EXTENDS ITS CALL FOR PROJECTS

Casablanca - February 13th, 2013

TIMLIF announces that its call for projects, launched five months ago for the TAMAM Program (TIMLIF Mediterranean and Arabic movies) will remain open until September 30th, 2013.

TAMAM is an innovative program which seeks universal stories told by filmmakers through a Mediterranean perspective. The selected projects will be produced by TIMLIF and will benefit from coaching mechanisms throughout the crucial stages of development, production, promotion, distribution and exhibition.

In this prospect, TIMLIF covers up to 30% of the overall budget of selected projects. The rest of the funding is provided through partnerships that have been forged by TIMLIF in this Program.

Open to a wide range of genres (comedy, action, drama, romance, documentary...), the current session of the TAMAM Program aims to support 12 projects: 6 projects from established filmmakers with a proven commercial and international film festival track record and 6 first time directors. The reading committee, made up of the creative and managerial members of TIMLIF's team, artists, journalists, festivals breeders, movie fan entrepreneurs, has already preselected two scripts.

To submit projects or to get more information on the TAMAM Program and the call for projects, please contact the Program coordinator:
